THE [illegible] ELECTIONS

OHIO.

[illegible] Oct. 11.—In Ohio we have reported [illegible] Cuyahoga and Hamilton counties, [illegible] which if correct places the [illegible] of State in doubt.

[illegible] Oct. 11.—A very large vote polled [illegible] but enough to indicate [illegible] by majorities ranging [illegible] Townsend Rep is elected to [illegible] 1,000.

[illegible] Oct. 11.—Returns as indicated by [illegible] show Dem majority in Montgomery [illegible] Darke 1 000 Preble Rep [illegible] The vote is very [illegible] of McMahon Dem to Con [illegible]

[illegible] Ohio returns in 11 [illegible] of Barnes, (Rep) for Secretary of [illegible] Boynton for judge of [illegible] will have a much larger ma[illegible]

An Election Contest.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 11.—Howard for Congress will [illegible] the election on the ground of bribery fraud and illegal votes.

West Virginia.

WHEELING Oct. 11.—No official returns can be [illegible] in consequence of the length of the [illegible] election law [illegible] The Democratic county ticket is generally elected [illegible] information from the state and the [illegible] the election of Goff Republican Governor [illegible] the third district gives a heavy Democratic majority.

Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—Returns received from [illegible] counties show [illegible] net [illegible] majority of 87 [illegible] net Democratic majority of [illegible] thus far heard from [illegible] William is [illegible] Harrison [illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS Oct 11.—1 A. M.—Returns from townships and wards in 31 counties give net Dem majority of [illegible] The same places in 1874 gave [illegible] Dem majority of [illegible]

[illegible] Ind Oct 11.—Two wards and [illegible] township in this city show net Dem gain of [illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—Fifty eight precincts give Dem gains of [illegible] Republican gains [illegible] on the vote of 1874 for Governor. On Congressmen the Republicans claim [illegible] out of [illegible] but this is not conceded by the Democrats.

Returns from 60 townships and wards in 16 counties give a net Republican majority of 600. The same places in 1874 gave a net majority of [illegible] and in 1872 a net Republican majority of [illegible]

In [illegible] precincts heard from the Democrats [illegible] Republicans 1406

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—We have returns from townships and wards in 46 counties, giving a net Rep majority of 2,318. Same places in 1874 gave a [illegible] Rep majority of [illegible] same places in 1872 gave a net Rep majority of [illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—[illegible] county complete Rep majority [illegible] Rep gain 41 [illegible] precincts heard from give a net Republican gain of [illegible] Corresponding gains in the State would give Harrison a gain of 14,500 as compared with the vote of 1874. Returns from 213 townships and wards in [illegible] counties which give a net Republican majority of [illegible] Same places in 1874 gave a net Republican majority of [illegible] and in 1872 a net majority for the Republicans of [illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—We have returns from 330 townships and wards in seventy counties which give net Rep majority of 1 70[illegible] The same places in '74 gave net Dem majority of 808 and in '72 a net Rep majority of [illegible]

4.40 P M.—Returns from 316 townships and wards in 70 counties give a net Republican majority of 1 702 same places in 1874 gave net Democratic majority of [illegible] and in 1872 net Republican majority of [illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—Returns from [illegible] townships and wards in 81 counties give a net Republican majority of 1,358 The same places in 1872 gave a net Republican majority of 2,16[illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—[illegible] o'clock P M.—Indications are that the Democrats elect Congressmen in the 1st 2d and 12th districts and Republicans in the 5th 6th 7th 9th 10th 11th and 13th The 4th and 8th are doubtful

CHICAGO Oct. 11.—The Journal's Indianapolis correspondent at three o'clock says the situation is practically unchanged Republicans claim the election of Harrison but are doubtful about the rest of the ticket. The northern part of the State begins to show gains for the Republican ticket, changing the drift of last night's dispatches. Shelby county Governor Hendricks' home shows Republican gains in almost every precinct not large but enough to show that Hendricks could not hold his own at home. In Indianapolis the Republicans make large gains carrying the city by over 2,000 majority The returns from the Congressional delegation remain unchanged The election seems to be a repetition of 1868, when Baker was elected but the changes are more favorable to the Republicans now than at that time

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 11.—1 P M.—Returns from 400 townships and in 79 counties give a net Republican majority of 1 374 The same places in 1874 gave a net Democratic majority of 1 494 and in 1872 a net Republican majority of 1 156

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—10 P M.—Indications are the Democrats elect Congressmen in the 1st, 2d 3d, and 12th districts and the Republicans in the 5th 6th 7th 9th, 10th 11th 12th and 13th The 4th and 8th are doubtful Brown's majority over Holman in the 5th is 1 500, and Hanna over Landers in the 7th is 2,000

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—Midnight.—Returns from 492 townships in 81 counties give a net Republican majority of 14[illegible] The same places in 1872 gave a net Republican majority of 1 000

INDIANAPOLIS Oct. 11.—9 30 P M.—Returns from 456 townships and wards in 81 counties give a net Republican majority of 1,288. The same places in 1872 gave a net Republican majority of 2 166

10 40 P M.—We have returns from 463 townships and wards in 81 counties which give a net Republican majority of 1 460 The same places in 1872 gave a net Republican majority of 2 31[illegible]

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 11.—From all returns received up to 12 o'clock to night indications are that the entire Democratic State ticket is elected by a small majority but it will require the official vote to determine the result for governor The Democratic State central committee claim Williams' majority to be from 2,000 to 3 000

Anxious to Hear the News

CHICAGO Oct. 11.—Anxiety to learn results of the elections induced crowds to surround the telegraph and newspaper offices The excitement is as great as at any Presidential election

The Chicago Times on the Situation

CHICAGO Oct. 11.—The Times editorially says of the elections in Indiana and Ohio "The worst fear is this don't conclude the battle." After alluding to the corruptions slanders and frauds which it asserts are the main features in this canvass It says it may be assumed that the result in the end is for the Tilden side even though the majority be no more than 4 000 or 5 000 Samuel J Tilden will be the next President so the supporters of Hayes may just as well make up their minds now as at any time hereafter If the Tilden [illegible] have really won in Indiana then in November Mr Tilden will get the electoral votes of Indiana New York Connecticut two of the Pacific States and the solid South Nor is it unlikely that he will also get the electoral votes of Ohio and Wisconsin and even Illinois may give its electoral votes for Tilden But Mr Tilden will not need the three States last mentioned He will receive 206 electoral votes without them—21 more than are required to elect

Morton's Opinion.

BURLINGTON Oct. 11.—Senator Morton and party passed through here to night en route for California In an interview with a Hawkeye reporter he stated that his private dispatches to day report the Republicans confident they have carried Indiana and if the result should show reduced Democratic majorities Hayes is sure to carry the State in November

STATE FAIR.

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL FAIR OF THE [illegible]

Third Day.

SALEM Oct 11 1876

The weather at the break of day was decidedly [illegible] would be rain before noon But at night fall the clouds lifted and it became brighter

The crowd [illegible] greatly increased last evening and to day the crowd is great all pressing forward to examine things that are new and strange, and not allowed for a moment to stop and examine the articles of whatever class they may be with that care and satisfaction that is desired by many But they [illegible] way to the pressure that is behind and discover something new at each step [illegible] The display of

OREGON MANUFACTURES

Is much superior to any heretofore and one of the most notable is the magnificent and complete exhibit of the Oregon City Woolen Manufacturing Co through their energetic agents Jacobs Bros & Co, who have spared no pains to make the display a complete success and have made the goods of the mills more generally known than any other establishment ever entered heretofore The display of blankets of both white and colored are of the finest texture in material and finish, and it is no wonder that they were awarded the premium at Philadelphia. They have also honeycomb cloth cassimeres tweeds flannels of different colors while a large number of suits made out of the sample materials show that the new branch of industry that the agents have inaugurated manufacturing clothing for men and youths will be of great benefit to the State at large and their superiority over Eastern make will be certain to create an immense trade and furnish employment to many We came very near forgetting to mention the fact that this firm has and on exhibition several bolts of ladies cloth that was pronounced by a competent judge to be of excellent quality

We are sorry to note that the Brownsville mills were not represented which would have made it more interesting for both parties

Across the room in the same building is the apartment of the

OREGON FURNITURE MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Which is the best that has ever been shown in Oregon The set that attracts the greatest attention is the floral chamber set and when the people were informed that all of the articles on exhibition were made entirely out of Oregon wood the expressions of surprise were many and interesting to listen to This set consisted of bedstead, bureau toilet stand and other articles and were of good workmanship One lady who was standing near remarked that she supposed that the set was valued at $1 000 and when she was informed that the price was $160 her surprise was great The next set was a black walnut parlor set and exhibited remarkably good workmanship but made out of imported material, and would be a creditable acquisition to any small family In the next apartment was a dining room or sitting room set made out of ash lumber of Oregon growth, and will shake the universal opinion heretofore entertained that maple is the leading species of wood for fine furniture This set was made for use as well as ornamental and is decidedly creditable workmanship showing that good furniture can be made as well in Oregon as any that has been imported from the Eastern States This exhibition of the Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Co will go far toward spreading their name as a manufacturing company, and that their work is worthy of patronage It is strange that other companies do not act upon the same motive that prompted the Oregon City woolen mills and the company now under consideration which would add great interest to the annual fair and benefit the country at large

THE WOODENWARE MANUFACTURING COMPANY

Have quite a space occupied in the new building with tubs buckets breadboards wash boards &c that attracts considerable attention, and I have been informed that this company are interfering considerably with importation of goods of that class Their work was pronounced as a superior quality by a person who I had requested to examine, and was an expert in that line of goods

PLUMMER'S PRESERVED FRUITS

Mr W S Plummer the inventor of the process known as the Plummer process of preserving fruit, has on exhibition a splendid display contributed from fifteen different establishments of his machines and process and consists of fifty cases, each containing 10 pounds nicely packed in boxes covered with glass &c, as is usual for such occasions showing in a clear manner their state of preservation. The cases are divided as follows apples 15 plums, 12 pears, 4 onions 1 tomatoes 1 squashes, 3 (one case having been put up three years) prunes, 1 cherry, 1—and that sample was preserved by Mrs Dierdorff a lady 70 years old and shows that simplicity and ease to work Mr Plummer sent 20 boxes of his preserved fruits to be exhibited at Philadelphia and was awarded the premium over the Alden and other competitors Mr Plummer will run one of his $50 machines for the purpose of examination by the people who are interested in the preservation of the thousands of bushels of fruit that is going to waste in this State and will undoubtedly be examined with interest by all

At a meeting of the State Agricultural Society the following was passed unanimously

WHEREAS The combination of the various companies engaged in carrying freights upon the Willamette river affords grounds of apprehension that there is danger of an attempt on the part of said combined to control the rates of freight charges upon said river thereby rendering nugatory the outlay of the state in assisting to build the locks and canal at the falls of the Willamette and the agreement between the State and company which built said locks made in order to secure and invite free navigation of the Willamette river therefore

Resolved That it is the sense of this Society that the present session of the legislature should not be allowed to pass without such action being taken as will effectually secure the equal rights and freedom of passage through said locks for all boats, barges and other water craft now engaged or which may hereafter engage in carrying freight or passengers on the Willamette river upon the payment of the [illegible] cents per ton and 10 cents per passenger agreed upon between the State and the Locks Company

2d We are in favor of such legislation as will secure the same freedom of commerce upon the Columbia that we asked [illegible] upon the Willamette

3d That we favor the appointment of a standing committee by the president of this society to wait upon and lay before the committees on commerce of the present legislative assembly copies of the foregoing resolutions

The above passed by unanimous vote and [illegible] of Marion J S Smith [illegible] and Wm Bigham of Wasco were appointed the committee to present the same to the legislative assembly

FLORAL DEPARTMENT

On entering the western door of the pavilion you enter the floral department which is tastefully arranged and decorated The plants are hardly so large upon the average as in previous years but they show more bloom and the variety is we think greater. The first thing that attracts the attention is a large century plant fifteen years old owned by Henry Miller of Portland, spreading its tropical looking leaves across a space of four feet and betokening a budding American flag on its eighth spire. This century plant is Centennial. Turning to the right a magnificent [illegible] under full bloom greets the eye. It is the finest plant of the kind we have seen this side of the Rocky mountains It is owned by Mrs Schwatka of Salem Mrs George Cook has a similar one that is an ornament to that side of the hall A tall specimen of canna four or five feet high stands near with its rich green as a marker for the pink flowers of the oleander It is owned by Mrs Taylor of Salem Next in importance on that side is a fine display of plants exhibited by J G Pfunder of the Portland floral park The same exhibitor has a small Brazilian palm with wide leaves which cost $8 in San Francisco It is quite a rare variety. He has varieties of canna 6 of coleus 27 of fuchsias 6 double geraniums 18 tricolors (all in full bloom) 36 evergreens 6 heliotropes 12 varieties of roses and 50 parti[illegible] foliage plants These foliage plants add much to the variety and richness of the scene and have the advantage over the flowering plants in that they are always in bloom or color A large English laurel displays a rich mass of leaves and covers quite a space of the rough wall Fuchsias calla lilies and bouquets of dahlias and roses with a fine display of basket and ornamental bouquets made of everlasting flowers complete Mr Pfunder's collection I have forgotten to mention especially fifteen varieties of begonia that attract attention by their rich colored foliage also belonging to Mr Pfunder We are come by this time to the cunning little monkey at the middle door the cynosure of all young eyes and more attractive than any human being of all the assembled thousands on the grounds His name is Jake and he is well known to the children of Portland, who often make calls on him at Floral Park

The premium for cut flowers offered by Jas Vick of Rochester N Y is contested by two ladies Mrs Dodson of [illegible] county and Miss Florence Garrison of Salem Mrs Dodson has fifty seven varieties of flowers without counting the kinds in each family In these families there are 2 varieties of asters and 6 of dahlias The dwarf asters are represented by nine different kinds ranging from flowers of the size of a five cent piece to those as large as half a dollar and growing only five or six inches high The white quilled aster is very perfect The chrysanthemum flowered a rich purple specimen, is open and graceful The camellia flowered is striped and has a pretty effect among the more solid colors Mrs Dodson has five varieties of dahlias of which the sunshine snow drop or dwarf and Queen of Hanover are very handsome A snowball from the second blooming of this year is a rarity She has also four varieties of gladiolus of the second blooming I asked her what was the secret of her success She said I live near the foot of the mountains and have a fine spring that is turned down on my garden and I have plenty of water all the time She has a dew plant with limbs four feet long, and many of her plants that usually bloom but once in the season have flowered three or four times

Miss Florence Garrison occupies the west half of the stand erected for cut flowers and has some beautiful bouquets One of mixed garden flowers is very tastefully arranged and will perhaps take the premium over some very rich hot house flowers entered for the same premium The same lady has a fine bouquet of dahlias and a very good arrangement of wild flowers Her flowers entered for the Vick premium, are large and fine but do not make quite so good a display as those of Mrs Dodson She has — varieties Her everlasting flowers are arranged on a large cross in wreaths and beautiful bouquets which she sells readily

Next to the stand for cut flowers is a handsome aquarium with a small jet of water at its top and surrounded by flowers in pots It stands on an iron pedestal and is elegant in conception and finish It is owned by George Holman, of Salem On the other side the flower stand is another aquarium owned by Dr L F Chase Fine plants are tastefully grouped around its base and the brilliant colors of the gold fish darting in and out among the shells and coral blend most beautifully with the green foliage and rare flowers without Mrs Chase has a few fine plants on exhibition a single fuchsia six or eight feet high a lemon verbena nearly as large and a beautiful geranium in full flower Mr Henry Miller has about half of the left hand side of the floral hall for his display of choice hot house plants He has 25 varieties of cactus some of them very curious and rare Among them is a serpent like night blooming cereus about four feet long, only three years old Of evergreen plants he has some 32 varieties, many are quite rare but very pretty The floral hall is certainly very prettily arranged, and the decorations by flags and evergreens together with the aquariums and a fountain and statue in the center of the pavilion combine to make this part of the State Fair display a fine success For want of more adjectives we must close and order a fresh supply for to morrow

Mrs Jennie Erb has a fine display of house pets seven varieties of Abutilon, thirteen of double geranium among which is the Asa Gray a lovely salmon color The Marie Lemoine has an enormous cluster of pink bloom Of variegated foliage plants she has 5 varieties monthly roses 5 varieties fuchsias, 19 varieties 10 of which are double The finest of these is one with a double white outer the Countess de Flanders Of mosses she has 12 varieties 4 hanging baskets some of them of rustic work And finally she exhibited a rustic stand of home manufacture made of roots and vine maple, and containing [illegible] varieties of plants Mrs Jacob Smith has 5 varieties of cactus some very large ones also a white lily with four or five lovely flowers The exhibit of moss pictures and [illegible] pictures are small Among them are the golden arbor vitæ, golden yew, etc The variegated Hoya or wax plant is exquisitely beautiful and the flowers and in fact the whole plant looks as if formed of delicate wax Sixteen varieties of climbing plants are exhibited in this collection among which are a large flowering jessamine and many [illegible] plants

Thirteen varieties of mosses, 40 varieties of foliage plants (among which are some very fine begonias) and 11 kinds of fuchsias appear in Mr Miller's display One variety of fuchsia, the schiller is a curiosity purple at first and rose pink afterwards Four fine coleus and a large Japanese bamboo finish Mr Miller's list pretty nearly if we except many single plants of other species that he has on sale We have neglected to mention several very handsome bouquets of cut flowers entered for premiums by Mr Miller

THE TERRITORIES

Coyotes and wolves have made their appearance at Sun river lately in unusually large numbers

The roads in the Walla Walla valley are so dusty in some localities that they are almost impassable

Judge J D Mix sold his fine farm near the garrison at Walla Walla to Jesse Drumheller price $6 000

A correspondent of the Walla Walla Union is informed that fourteen families of emigrants have located on the Asotin this fall

Wheat offered at Walla Walla is readily taken at the rate of 75 cents This is an advance upon the figure that ruled earlier in the season

The people of Lewiston are talking about putting a new ferry on Snake river opposite Lewiston on the road between that place and Walla Walla

The Nez Perces—some 200 or 300 people and twice as many ponies—en route "to buffalo" invaded Deer Lodge by detachments September 21st They were well robed, if not with righteousness

A party of emigrants from New Brunswick for Missoula county Montana several families apparently with teams and outfit passed through town this week having come by team from Cow Island

Owing to the disappointment in navigating Snake river at low water the people living in Columbia and Whitman counties speak loud of their wants of railroad communication with Walla Walla

The new steamer Almota is expected to commence her regular trips to Wallula on Monday next Our wheat shippers will then have an opportunity to get off some six hundred tons more per week So says the Walla Walla Statesman of the 7th

Bands of sheep can now be bought in Walla Walla valley for from $1 50 to $2 per head This is the lowest that sheep have ever been known to sell for The low price of wool during the past season has caused a desire on the part of many sheep men to quit the business

Philip Ritz of Walla Walla contemplates another visit to California soon, taking with him 250 000 young fruit trees for sale chiefly of the various apple and cherry varieties but with not a few peaches, plums and prunes He did well last year and hopes to do quite as well the second time

Mrs Ian Lewis, of Smith river valley Meagher county, Montana is something of a sportsman and an excellent shot While a party of Smith river people, bound for the States were recently camped in Judith Basin, Mrs Lewis with a rifle killed a large fine buffalo near the camp and brought the animal down at the first shot, too

Peter Stewart came into town yesterday with his big twelve-mule team and wagon and two trail wagons from Kelton [illegible] with 15 000 pounds of goods for Schwabacher & Co As the goods were piled out of these prairie schooners on the sidewalk it looked like unloading a ship at the wharf of some seaport town So says the Boise Statesman

Says the Helena (Montana) Herald of Sept 21st Wells Fargo & Co's express agent, whose car was robbed last week near Salt Lake city of $15 000 has been arrested on suspicion that he alone was the robber W G Williams is his name From the evidence of the first day's proceedings in court we should say the case looks a little dark for Williams

In the case of Mrs Phelps against the steamship City of Panama says the Seattle Tribune, to recover $40 000 damages for injuries received by falling through a hatchway decision was rendered by Chief Justice Lewis last Saturday To Mrs Phelps he awarded $5 000 and her costs (excepting attorney fees) of suit She was not satisfied with the amount of the award, and took an appeal to the supreme court

From the Snohomish Star we learn that 2 752 acres of land either has been or will be diked on the Swinomish slough this year There has been more or less diking going on for years past, until several thousand acres have been reclaimed not against the tide so much as against the overflow of the Skagit river The whole area susceptible of reclamation at the mouth or mouths of this river is estimated by persons of competent authority at 100 000 acres, a work that the next ten years will probably see entirely consummated.

The farmers around Colfax W T are all hard at work securing their crops, which are larger this year than usual A good many new settlers are coming into the county and the country is fast improving Thousands of acres of government land just as good as any that is being cultivated still remains unoccupied There are now two good flouring mills in the county one at Colfax and one at Palouse City With a light draught steamer on the Upper Snake (which they now have) this country has many inducements to the settler both as an agricultural and stock country

Messrs Dooley & Kirkman butchers and packers of Walla Walla have during the past season killed 1 200 head of hogs, 900 head of beef cattle and 1 800 head of sheep Last winter they put up and sold 2 000 cans of lard They shipped bacon to British Columbia and San Francisco the last named market proved a perfect success and demonstrated beyond a doubt that bacon hams shoulders etc can be shipped to the California market with safety Fat hogs are now selling in this market for 3½ cents per pound gross This firm have 100 head of large fat steers in pasture for winter market and have on their ranch on the Malheur 3 000 head of cattle

Says the Seattle Tribune of the 9th Mr William Day who has just arrived from Cassiar has in his possession several blood red stones having a fine shape that are as finely [illegible] as if done by the lapidary He found them in rock of igneous formation at the mouth of the Stickeen river These stones are similar to what is known as the Alaska diamonds and will cut glass but being found above the reach of the tide are red in color Mr Day brought a rock from which he had extracted a couple of these stones to show that their shape were due to nature and not to art Mr Day reports times very dull at Cassiar there being too many men there and all available claims being already taken up A party had gone out prospecting in the Tucko country but had not returned at the time Mr Day left Cassiar

THURSDAY MORNING OCT 12 1876

THE STANDARD ON THE EASTERN ELECTIONS

Those who read the dispatches concerning the Eastern elections would hardly be likely to conclude the Democracy had carried both Ohio and Indiana. Yet it is upon the strength of these dispatches that the Standard says

> A great many dispatches have been received at this office to day and after wading through a vast labyrinth of figures and doing many little sums in addition and subtraction we come to the conclusion that Indiana has gone fully 10 000 Democratic majority and Ohio because conceded as "close" by Radical dispatches as Democratic by at least 2000. Victory is undoubtedly ours and Samuel J Tilden will be the next President

Now we are too fast. It is not the published dispatches alone that form the foundation of the Standard's extraordinary conclusions. That paper has information from other sources, which it states as follows

> A private telegram sent by a prominent Cincinnati sporting man to a friend in this city, urges him to bet that both States have gone Democratic
> Officer J M, McCoy, of this city has telegraphed from San Francisco to a friend here that both Ohio and Indiana have gone Democratic

A prominent sporting gentleman, by private telegram, advises his friend here, who it is fair to presume is also a prominent sporting gentleman, to bet that both have gone Democratic. That is just a little indefinite, it must be admitted nor do we learn that the friend who received this oracular dispatch has thrown any considerable number of trade dolars in sight on the strength of it. Perhaps he is of a critical turn of mind, and wants to find out how the prominent sporting gentleman who takes such an intensely human interest in his fortunes, knows any more about the result than the central committees of the political parties. But, then, Officer McCoy telegraphed yesterday from San Francisco that both Ohio and Indiana had gone Democratic. Even that is scarcely conclusive on the subject. How does Officer McCoy become possessed of information in San Francisco which those immediately at the scene of the conflict have not been able to get? That is thin—just not quite as thin as the now famous dispatch from Col Jo Teal on the Colorado election

But in order that our readers may understand the exact process by which the Democratic organ extracts sunbeams from cucumbers, we call special attention to this excerpt from the same editorial from which the foregoing were taken

> Cuyahoga county, the Western Reserve and well known stronghold of Ohio Radicals, has gone Democratic by over 2,000 majority. This is admitted by Republicans.

No dispatch has come over the wires to justify that statement. The dispatch is that in Cuyahoga county the Democrats gain over 2,000, not that Cuyahoga county has gone Democratic by over 2,000 or by any other number. Cuyahoga county gave Hayes a majority of 6,046 over Fog Horn Allen last year, so a Democratic gain of over 2,000 would still leave a Republican majority of 4,000—a difference of 6,000 from the Standard's statement. That is the way the readers of Democratic organs are furnished with the facts upon which they are expected to form their opinions of current events. It is all right, however, because it is in the interest of "the party"

A CLEAR CASE OF OFFICIAL INTEGRITY

Forth rushes the evening organ, with banners waving and bugle blowing, to proclaim the grandeur of Democratic integrity as exemplified in the conduct of State Treasurer Brown when the committee appointed to count the money in the treasury vaults called on him. The particular circumstance wherein the superiority of an honest Democrat to a thieving radical was made manifest, was that when he tried to open the safe and found the lock would not act, he would not allow the committee to leave his office till, with the aid of a skilled workman, he cut a hole through a brick wall, and sent a man inside, who took off the lock from within and let the committee in. Now all that was discreet, surely. It would have been an awkward affair at best, and might have given rise to much uncharitable comment if the Treasurer had surrendered to that belligerent safe lock, and told the committee to come back next day and he would allow them the cash. But we are not altogether convinced that the conduct of Mr. Treasurer Brown would have been impossible in anybody but a Bourbon Democrat. The Standard has reached and announced that conclusion, but the process of reasoning by which he has been led thereto is not apparent. So we must be permitted to entertain the opinion that even that exalted degree of honesty might be attained by a few exceptional characters, at least, outside the school fund ring. And while on the subject we beg the organ and all others whom it may concern not to take it unkindly if we ask how it happened that the committee to count the money was not appointed till two days after the resolution raising such a committee passed. Did some person who knew how matters stood tip a wink to the Democratic Speaker of the House? We should regret to believe. But was it so? That is the question asked by several persons we wot of

A good story is told at the expense of the editor of one of our sprightliest country papers. He traded a year's subscription to a farmer for a young shoat for fattening purposes. Then for four weeks his neighbors if not his readers were entertained with his essays on the best methods of fattening hogs on scientific principles. The climax was at last reached one day last week, when an immense feed of warm wash [illegible] and other extensive preparations made for the slaughter of that scientifically fattened porker [illegible] editor with murder in his heart and his eye [illegible] armed with three butcher knives [illegible] closely followed by his accomplished wife carrying the camphor bottle. On reaching the pen where the deed was to be done what was his astonishment at beholding his porker converted into a handsome sow and nine fresh pigs. His feelings were aided by the camphor bottle and he was able to reach his house in safety. He says it would have been better for that farmer if he had died in his infancy

GEN SPRAGUE'S VINDICATION

As repeated charges have been made against the management of the Northern Pacific Railway Company's affairs on the Pacific coast, and frequent investigations of General Sprague's books records and general administration of the company's business under his supervision, all resulting in the fullest indorsement of his integrity ability and faithfulness the following record of the action of the board of directors making a final disposition of the matter, will be interesting to many readers to whom in a general way the charges and investigations are known

I Samuel Wilkison the secretary of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company certify under the company's seal that the following is a correct transcript from the minutes of the proceedings of the company's board of directors by me kept at their meeting duly held on the 20th day of September 1876

[Seal of N P R R Co] Sec'y N P R R Co

New York, Sept 22 1876

The vice president presented and read a report of his examination into the official conduct of Gen J W Sprague the company's agent on the Pacific coast and his administration of this company's affairs also his investigation of all charges made against General Sprague after notice given that he would hear them, as he was instructed to do by the resolution of this board of June 21, 1876.

The conclusion of the report was in these words

"I made a careful examination into all the details of Gen Sprague's management of the affairs of the division since it came under our control and found the business conducted in an accurate, economical and efficient manner. His general standing is that of a high toned gentleman and in my judgment he honors the position he fills. In intrusting the local management of our large property on that coast to a skilled and responsible agent like General Sprague we shall do ourselves and the company great injustice if we do not make him feel that he is to be sustained in well doing. The charges made against him prove to be frivolous and unfounded—I might say, in the main, malicious. Their continued agitation and repeated investigation have become annoying to him, and are detrimental to our interests and standing over there. I recommend therefore that they be no further considered, and that the board do now either by the acceptance and adoption of the conclusions of this report, or by special resolution, express its confidence in its Pacific coast management"

On the motion of Mr Cheney, the report was accepted and adopted. Thereupon Mr Power offered the following resolution

Resolved That this Board besides adopting the report of the Vice President and its conclusions exculpating General Sprague from the charges heretofore made against him, does hereby, in addition, testify its confidence in him as an honest and faithful officer in the management of the affairs of this company on the Pacific Coast

Mr. Cheney seconded this motion and said "I feel it to be a duty and a pleasure to make public testimony of my confidence in General Sprague's integrity and rare ability to manage a large property trust. I have known him long and well—knew him as the manager of the Winona and St Peter's road, with its large land grant—and unwillingly, and with subsequent regret consented to his withdrawal from the service of that corporation to take charge of this company's interests on the Pacific Coast. The Northern Pacific has in General Sprague a faithful and able agent and should sustain him. He deserves the support of this resolution and more, too"

The resolution was put to vote and was unanimously adopted

The evening organ is greatly encouraged by the report that West Virginia has given a Democratic majority in her State election. We have seen no estimate of the electoral vote which did not place West Virginia in the Democratic column. The Standard's making special mention of the vote of that State as among the indications of the election of Tilden, is much the same as it would be for a Republican paper to crow over the fact that Republicans have carried Nebraska when no sane man ever supposed there was the shadow of a doubt they would carry it

THE INSANE ASYLUM

SALEM Oct 10 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Among the numerous bills already introduced at this session is one which demands a careful consideration before it is acted upon. I refer to Senate bill No 102 introduced by Dr Richardson of Marion county providing for the levy of a special tax for the purpose of building a State Insane Asylum at Salem the building to be completed within two years

There are several grave objections to the passage of this bill at the present time. An examination of the reports of the superintendents of the various asylums throughout the Union discloses the fact that no substantial building, suitable for a State asylum and supplied with all the modern conveniences and appliances, can be constructed at a cost of less than $1 000 per patient to be accommodated, while in very many of the States the price ranges from $1 200 to $2 400 to the patient. Now we have in this State at the present writing 218 patients. At the minimum cost then it would require $218 000 to erect a State building capable of accommodating the present number. There is a yearly increase of about 12 in number, however so that by the time the building could be finished we should have about 250 patients. Suppose, then that a building capable of holding 300 patients is to be erected, and nothing less than that would be sufficient, it would then cost the State at least $300,000. This would be a large sum to be added to the non productive capital already invested by the State in an unfinished pile which is a sad monument to our overreaching ambition for State buildings

It may be urged that the tax provided for by this bill will not aggregate any such sum, that it will not amount to more than $70,000. So much the worse then for if the State builds a hospital at all it should be such an one as will be adequate to its wants. The wooden buildings at East Portland have cost largely in excess of the last named sum. Can it be supposed then that a brick edifice possessed of all the comforts and conveniences necessary in such an institution and large enough to answer the wants of the State, can be built for any such sum? Certainly not. But is it necessary for the State to move in the matter at present? A joint committee of both houses has in its published report said that no fault can be found with the present management of our insane. That they are skillfully humanely even generously cared for is universally conceded. And as to price it can be conclusively shown that our State is not paying more than is usually paid in the different States while the service rendered is a matter of just pride to our people. In some of the States as high as $7 per week for each patient is paid. Our charge of $6 50 per week is the average price paid throughout the United States and when we consider the newness of our country as contrasted with those States our expenses in this direction are relatively cheaper. The part of prudence and wisdom then is to wait until the State is able to spare money enough to erect a building which shall be complete in its appointments and will reflect credit on our liberality and humanity

There are many investments of State moneys to be made in a community like ours which will bring back to the people an hundred fold interest in the way of increased prosperity. Let the State foster a wise system of internal improvements which shall stimulate [illegible] cheaper transportation and thereby increase our material prosperity [illegible] it makes to invest any more money in unproductive piles of brick

Says the Walla Walla [illegible] of last Saturday: "During the week James W. Foster has been engaged in hauling wagon loads of grapes from his ranch on the foot of the mountains to Frank Orselli's place in town. One load we noticed consisted of 510 pounds of grapes thrown loosely into a wagon bed. The grapes were unloaded with a pitchfork. This mode of handling grapes is the common practice in California but is a new thing here. Mr Orselli is converting the grapes into wine"

RUPTURE!

No More Metallic Trusses Used!

No More Suffering from Iron Hoops or Steel Springs!

The superiority of our Elastic Trusses over the rigid Iron Hoops which in former days were the only resource of the ruptured admits of NO ARGUMENT

By means of this appliance the pressure on the Rupture itself can be made uniform and continuous and to the extent required in each case until a slight inflammation of the parts is secured and the consequent effusion of lymph which is essential to a healing process and from this time to the conclusion of the treatment the pressure being entirely within the control of the patient can be lessened daily as the adhesion progresses and the body becomes sound. All cases of reducible Hernia are permanently relieved without regard to the age of the patient or the [illegible] of the injury while in its action it is wholly free from all the cruelty that has heretofore [illegible] of the malady with trusses [illegible] the earliest age to the present day. Your attention is called to the following facts

1st—There are no springs to press upon or to injure the back.

2d—It is simple [illegible] and not liable to get out of order

3d—This Instrument is worn with perfect ease while performing horse [illegible]

4th—The rupture is retained and the pressure the same while in any position

5th—It has none of the injurious results of metallic Trusses

6th—It will [illegible] others fail

7th—It is worn with ease and comfort night and day which cannot be said truthfully of any metal truss whatever

Experience shows that all tempered spring Trusses necessarily press upon and often disease parts of the body that before were in a perfectly healthy condition. Lumbago and other equally distressing ailments are not unfrequently the outgrowth of such pressure and in view of this fact it becomes a matter of [illegible] consequence to avoid like calamities if possible

Examination Free. The closest scrutiny of physicians solicited

AT POINT ADAMS.—For years past the ocean has been constantly wearing away Point Adams, near the mouth of the Columbia, until a strip of sand only about 200 yards in width now separates the water from Fort Stevens. During the prevalence of storms the erosions progress rapidly, and wind sometimes carrying feet of land at one time. So steadily has the ocean encroached on the land that fears are apprehended lest the spot where the fort now stands will, in the next few years, be swept away; and the question how these erosions could be prevented has been the subject of very careful investigation. Last at the request of Capt. Stevens, Col. Wood went down to Point Adams to investigate the erosions and make such observations as proper and expedient. Col. Tuesday, and returned the terday. Of the result of his observation or of the conclusions to which he after the examination, we are not apprised. There remains unexpended $10,000, which Col. Wilson purposes using in placing such barriers as shall prevent further erosions. to stop the encroachments of results, it will become the fort to some point beyond of old Ocean's far-reaching Wilson proposes to commence operations to prevent further at that point. Initiatory for 2,000 tons of rock to be at the place where work is shortly to

A YOUNG GENT.—A young hoodlum, in this community, named Henry last Friday, an unprovoked on an unoffending Celestial the name of Wan Hack. Finding the Chinaman did not possess sufficient to defend himself against the ruffian proceeded to punish well, putting a good head on distinguishing himself in this Elkeles walked away. after that the officers were on quietly left Portland and City, and from that place the State Fair. Complaint was the young hoodlum, a warrant in the hands of Officer Sprague went to Salem found the object of his search. was arrested, and, with a pair (?) on his wrists, he the officer. Yesterday he was on a charge of assault and was found guilty and sentenced of $50, which failing to do, he to the county jail for 25 days. of time young Elkeles can end of reflection.

ON THE WILLAMETTE AND COLUMBIA.—At present the snag boat is engaged above Salem, removing obstructions. Capt. J. H. Gist, of reports to Col. Wilson that the completed at Buena Vista, carefully constructed, and has very materially the past season wing dams at the following bars: Bowers' Pine Tree, Black and Lower Fickles, of the Luckiamute, Buena amounting in all to about have been removed both at and Rocky Rapids yards, greatly improving the channels. Owing to of the necessary funds no will be done this season, except will commence on next week at the Upper excavating rocks under con. Montgomery. It is estimated yards will be removed.

DISMANTLED.—Capt. Flavel's tug J. is lying at the Iron Works dock, undergoing a general overhaul. The has been strengthened in and new piston rods and heads at the foundry, the old ones be from long use. In the Brenham will be again ready bar. The little side-wheel (the whirl of whose busy floats a familiar sound in our good service this season down the river, is lying the Brenham for general repairs to machinery.

The boiler which is to be ating the motor power of Weidler's boat, has been completed at the Iron Works and will shortly be on board that craft. Yesterday afternoon was subjected to the usual Mr. James Lotan, U. S. Boiler Inspector, was put under a very heavy and stood the test with bolt, or giving the least evidence

Judge J. H. Woodward returned to the city Tuesday evening after several visit to Lewiston and other points The judge went to transact business, and at the same time trip. He returns in a good physically, and in excellent All the orders made in vacation to in chambers, and there be no county court before next

A Chinaman had an examination a few days ago, before Justice B with drawing a pistol on one of with whom he was exchanging very uncomplimentary remarks, and attempting to use the He was held to await the action of jury on a charge of assault with a weapon, and in default of bonds to the county jail.

TAX ROLL.—Mr. Geo. W. Murray, clerk for district No. 1, assisted by Mr. Chas. has been engaged for some days in out the tax roll for this district. The will soon be completed, when taxpayers will be afforded an opportunity to walk up "fork over" the amount set opposite their names to contribute toward the maintenance of the schools of the city.

THE GEORGE TELFAIR.—This steamer is tied up, awaiting orders from the head office in San Francisco, and neither the day nor hour of her departure for northern ports is known. We are informed that an received here from San Francisco, instructing the agent here to discharge employes of the vessel except the captain, and watchman.

PERSONAL.

We acknowledge a call last evening from Eldridge Morse, Esq., editor of the Northern Star, Snohomish City, W. T. Mr. Morse publishes one of the most newsy and enterprising papers in Washington Territory.

Among the passengers by the Stephens is Hon. W. G. Piper, of Warsaw, Indiana, who with his family to settle in Albany. Mr comes Piper was a law partner of Mr. J. F. Caples 13 years ago. We notice by the San Francisco papers that he made a rousing speech for Hayes and Wheeler while in that city.

Wm. Hand, Esq., of the Dalles Mountaineer returned on the Stephens from the East. Mr. Hand captured a partner (not a silent one we opine), while away, and comes back a married and it is to be hoped a wiser man. He gave us a pleasant call before leaving the city. We, in common with Mr. Hand's many friends, wish him and his happy bride long life and all manner of prosperity, and that in the near future the loving couple may acquire numerous little Hands to assist them over the rugged road of life.

NEW BOOKS.

The following new books have just been received and added to the Portland Library:

The Dwellers in Five Sisters' Court, by H. E. Scudder.

At the Councillor's or a Nameless History; by E. Marlitt; translated from the German by Mrs. A. L. Wister.

In a Winter City, a story of the day; by Ouida.

The Echo Club, and other Literary Diversions, by Bayard Taylor.

Quits, a novel by Baroness Tautphœus.

Daniel Deronda, by George Eliot, complete in one volume.

No Name Series: Mercy Philbrick's Choice.

The Two Destinies, a novel; by Wilkie Collins; illustrated.

Imaginary Conversations; by Walker Savage Lander; First Series Classical Dialogues, Greek and Roman.

"GOT LEFT."—The Olympia Tribune of Saturday, says: "Some dozen or fifteen men came over from Portland yesterday to take the steamship Dakota at this place for San Francisco. When they arrived here and learned that the ship was already gone their anger knew no bounds, and they were ready to rise up and do bodily injury to almost any one having the temerity to cross their path. They were somewhat appeased, however, by finding that they were not entirely left, as by taking the Eliza Anderson for Victoria to day they could catch the Dakota in good time. Ere this appears in print they will doubtless be on board that vessel, steaming down the Straits of Fuca, perhaps.

Another big supply of Puget Sound fish and clams this evening at Fabre's.

"HOME'S A GOOD THING TO HAVE."—We noticed the agent of the new Home quite busy yesterday taking orders for this popular machine. Mr. Traver informs us that he will not exhibit at the fair this year. He received 25 machines the first of the month, 10 more will arrive in a few days. Which proves that this favorite machine gives universal satisfaction.

Dr. Halprun has his patent healing salve—corn and bunion remedy on exhibition at the State fair grounds. He also has it for sale at his office on the grounds.

Mrs. Geo. H. Clarke invites the attention of her numerous customers to the grand opening of her fall and winter stock of millinery goods on Wednesday, October 11th, when she will display one of the most magnificent and extensive assortment of French patterns, hats and bonnets, together with the latest novelties ever offered in Portland.

Take your better half to Barnes for a lunch at noon.

BOARD OF TRADE.

A regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held last evening at the rooms, Ankeny's building. Hon. H. W. Corbett in the chair, Wm. Reid, secretary, present.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

COAST SURVEY CHART.

On motion, the secretary was instructed to address a letter to Prof. Davidson, of San Francisco asking that gentleman to forward to the board, for its use, a chart of the surveys made by the board of coast surveyors of the Columbia river bar and beyond the bar for a distance of 24 miles.

PILOTAGE AND TOWAGE BILL.

Mr. Montgomery from the Columbia bar committee, reported the bill in relation to regulating pilotage and towage on the Columbia and Willamette rivers, with the recommendation that the same shall be passed by the legislature. The bill was read for the information of the board, slightly amended, and, on motion the report of the committee was adopted. The bill was recommended to the favorable consideration of the legislature, also that the secretary be instructed to forward a copy of the bill as amended to each branch of that body.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Montgomery offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That John H. Mitchell and J. K. Kelly United States Senators and Lafayette Lane Representative in Congress be hereby declared honorary members of this board, and that our secretary notify them of their election and request their attendance at future meetings during their presence in this city.

Mr. Gross offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has hitherto been the policy of the people and Legislatures of Oregon to encourage capital to come into the State from sister States and foreign countries; and

WHEREAS, The House of Representatives has recently passed a bill which, by its unnecessary and arbitrary restrictions, would prevent such capital from seeking investments in Oregon; therefore,

Resolved, That we express our regret that such a bill has passed the lower house, and as it would in our judgment be detrimental to the interests of the State if it became a law, we do hereby respectfully ask the honorable the Senate of the State of Oregon not to pass said House Bill No. 15, also that the secretary forward this resolution to the President of the Senate, under the seal of the board.

On motion the board adjourned.

EUGENE ITEMS.

Under date of Oct. 11th, our Eugene correspondent sends the following:

The district and private schools have closed for the time being. Services are also omitted at the several churches.

Frank Harrigan and Geo. Archberger, the tonsorial artists of this city, have left for the Fair, where they will open a shop during the week.

A number of Eugeneites have gone to visit the Fair. Your correspondent, however, will remain at home on account of financial difficulties.

A short time ago a marriage was celebrated in this place, the united ages of the contracting parties being little over 33 years, and again other parties were placed in the connubial harness whose ages amounted to 150.

Contracts have been let by the city for the completion of two cisterns. They will be dug till they contain three feet of water. The gravel is such that the water permeates freely through it, and it is expected that this will give sufficient water in case an engine is secured and its services needed.

No new cases of smallpox have developed as yet. This week will however, decide that question. We are afflicted also with a health committee, on which, contrary to all reason and common sense, no physicians are placed. This committee print and distribute bills through the county, claiming that all persons exposed are kept secure, when in fact they may be seen on the streets every day.

GRAND ILLUMINATION.

Last evening we received the following dispatch which will require no explanation:

STATE FAIR GROUNDS, Oct. 11, 1876.

EDITOR OREGONIAN—Will you please announce that there will be a Centennial illumination of the pavilion, Thursday and Friday evenings. It will be one of the grandest exhibits of the kind ever witnessed on the Pacific coast. W. P. WATSON, Pres't.

RESOLUTIONS OF ENDORSEMENT.

HALL OF WILLAMETTE ENGINE CO. NO. 1,
PORTLAND October 6, 1876.

At a regular meeting of Willamette Engine Co. No 1, held at the company's hall October 6 1876 Chief Engineer J. H. Lyon was nominated for the office of Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department and the following resolutions unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That our fellow member and present efficient Chief Engineer J. H. Lyon is the unanimous choice of this company for Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department and this company does hereby nominate him for such office

Resolved, That the uniform courtesy displayed by Chief Engineer Lyon, and the able fearless and impartial manner in which he has performed the duties of his position, merits his unanimous re-election.

DISCOVERY.

Dr. Halprun wishes to state to the public that his operations and medicines for the treatment of CORNS, BUNIONS, etc., are all of his own discovery, and are entirely different from any other treatment on the coast. Persons afflicted with CORNS, etc., can have them treated at their residences or place of business by sending their orders through the postoffice, or leaving them at Mrs. Clarke's Millinery Store. Satisfaction guaranteed or no charge. Terms reasonable.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated electric lightning steam baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles as his numerous patients will attest. He is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

IDAHO MINES.

From editorial correspondence to the Avalanche, dated Rocky Bar, Alturas county, we glean the following:

WOOD RIVER MINES.

Recent intelligence from the few mining camps on Wood river represent very favorable prospects. A ledge rich in galena has been traced a distance of 900 feet, and at every point where it has been prospected it shows up in ore that has been found in some instances to be worth $2,700 to the ton. Mr. Callahan, of this place, is interested in some mining property there that will, if developed systematically, make a millionaire of him. M. H. Williams is also interested in a ledge there that only requires capital to give it greater prominence and yield handsome returns. The smallest assay yet made on the rock shows up about $37, and there is an abundance of it in sight, which will turn out at much higher figures.

THE VISHNU.

This mine seems to improve as it is developed. For some time past it has been under lease to Messrs. George M. Parsons, E. B. Hall and William Myers. They had some 47 tons of rock crushed a few months ago which yielded a total of $4,560. More recently a crushing of 38 tons averaged $90 to the ton. The mine is about to be re-leased to the same parties (from Captain Settle) who will prosecute operations the coming winter with their usual vigor and energy. The shaft is already sunk to a depth of two hundred feet, and the operations thus far show what can be accomplished by even a small force of men who mean business. With only four men at work on the Vishnu for the past few years, there has been a handsome return to the owners of the mine, and if operations had been carried on, on a larger scale, the returns would have been proportionately greater. The ledge varies from ten inches to six feet in width, and with the winter work on the mine, there is every indication that prospects will improve and that it will turn out to be a first-class bonanza.

THE IDAHO BONANZA.

Preparations are being made to open up this mine the coming winter and extend a tunnel in a length of 250 feet. About thirty tons of rock from this mine are now being crushed at Dilley & Johnson's arrastra, which it is expected will average about $100 to the ton. The arrastra crushes at the rate of about two tons daily, and has been kept in use most of the season on rock from several of the mines in the vicinity. As soon as the present crushing is completed, Messrs. Dilley & Johnson will put on an increased force on their mine and do their part towards contributing to the business of the camp for the coming few months.

QUARTZ IN MOTION.

At the storehouse of A. & J. Pfeiffer is a large quantity of quartz awaiting shipment to Kelton by freight teams. Most of this ore comes from the leading ledge at Atlanta.

None of this rock yields less than $40 to the ton, and much of it goes as high as $1,000. Freight wagons which come here laden with supplies for this camp usually carry quartz back to Kelton. The Buffalo company sends away about four tons a week, their rock being crushed in New Jersey. The other company have their crushing done at Omaha.

THE AVALANCHE.

This mine, which is situated midway between Rocky bar and the Red Warrior mill, is doing a snug little business. The rock, of which there are now nearly sixty tons ready for crushing, yields from $70 to $150 per ton, and during the past season some of it was found to go as high as $350. Messrs. Holman & Thomas, the enterprising owners of the mine, were driving a tunnel in all last winter. They pushed in to a distance of about 420 feet, which at that point strikes the ledge about 130 feet below the upper tunnel and 180 feet below the surface. They are now going down on the hanging wall ledge where there is about 14 feet of vein matter. The foot-wall ledge is from 18 inches to two feet in width, leaving the waste matter between the two ledges to mark a distance of nine feet or so. On both ledges there is splendid pay rock. The mine is in a very promising state of development.

CENTENNIAL AWARD!

Grand Triumph for Weber.

Copy of the Western Union telegram received by Sherman & Hyde, San Francisco:

NEW YORK, Sept. 29, 1876.

Weber, of New York, received the highest award for sympathetic, pure and rich tone, combined with greatest power, as shown in the three styles, Grand, Square and Upright Pianos, which show intelligence and solidity in their construction, and pliant and easy touch, which at the same time answers promptly to its requirements, together with excellence of workmanship. A. WEBER.

Peloubet, Pelton & Co., New York, have received diploma of honor and medal of award for their celebrated Standard Organs.

SHERMAN & HYDE, Agents.

We see that the new Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine is on exhibition on the Fair Grounds. It should commend the attention of visitors the more as its victories for 1876 have been so numerous and complete. Call and see it and fully convince yourself that it did deserve the first medal at the Centennial Exposition, gold medal at American Institute, New York, gold medal at the California State Fair, first premium at the Southern States Exposition, and first premium at the Washington Territorial Fair.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 8, 1876.
Messrs. LILIENTHAL & Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.
Gentlemen—I would report that I have made an analysis of your three brands of Noble Whisky distilled by you at Cincinnati, viz.:
I Crown Cyrus Noble Old Bourbon.
II " " " " "
III " " " " "
And find the same to be free from any deleterious substance and particularly free from that very objectionable substance fusel oil, showing that great care has been taken in their manufacture.
Respectfully yours,
E. S. WAYNE,
Analytical Chemist.

CYRUS NOBLE DISTILLERY, 1st Dist., O.
CINCINNATI, April 1, 1876.
Messrs. LILIENTHAL & Co.
Gentlemen—I have just returned from a trip through Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia, undertaken for the purpose of examining the various distilleries in those districts, and I am now more than ever confirmed in the opinion, so often expressed to you, that your distillery is the most complete, and best conducted of any in the United States.
The careful selection of your grain, the purity of the water, the slower and more cautious method of distillation, is what gives the NOBLE WHISKY its superior qualities, and has gained for it the reputation which it universally sustains throughout the United States.
Gratified that the 20 years devoted to the distillation of the CYRUS NOBLE WHISKY, has been attended with such happy results, I trust I may be spared to continue my labors in its interest, and that of its many patrons and consumers.
I am, Gentlemen,
Yours faithfully,
CYRUS NOBLE.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The great reputation which our Cyrus Noble Whisky has enjoyed in medical practice throughout the Eastern States and Europe for a period of nearly 25 years, prompts us to bring it to the notice of the Public of the Pacific Coast for similar use.
Its absolute purity, having by analysis been found to be entirely free from FUSEL OIL, and the improved quality imparted to it by its being retained in store for at least from 5 to 6 years after distillation, has given to the Physician a remedy long sought for in his own Materia Medica.
The certificates we hold of its efficacious use in the treatment of cases where NERVOUS PROSTRATION exists and vitality is at a low ebb, as is frequently observed in fevers endemic to our country, of DYSPEPSIA, with its whole train of gastric troubles, of diseases of the LIVER and the BLADDER, of CONSUMPTION, affording effective and ready relief to the afflicted victim, and of putrescent diseases or blood poisoning, resulting in its use as a disinfectant the sufferer from premature death, are all highly gratifying to us, and we believe we owe it to our numerous patrons on the coast to use every endeavor to introduce it here.
Very respectfully,
LILIENTHAL & CO.

GROWING OLDER.

"Growing older?" Well spring must vanish,
Orchard blossom and woodland bloom,
How swift y memory seems to banish
Your fragrance, lost in the rose perfume;
And what if June in her turn go speeding
Away from the hot midsummer glare!
The harvest for tropic suns is pleading
The peach grows ripe in the sultry air.
The keen, clear breath of the cool October,
With its crimson glory of wood and sky
Will bring new life It the heart seem sober
Too filled with a joy that cannot die
Too deep for smiling It knows December
Holds the blessed Christmas morn, and sure
Of a lovelier spring than it can remember
Sleeps, of its Easter day secure

WEDDING EVE.

At the single silver chime she lies,
With golden lights in the brown of her hair.
She carries away my heart and eyes,
And leaves me hot kiss at the foot of the stair!

Two plump white arms around my neck
Her mouth and her eyes and her heart kiss mine,
She kisses me words she will not speak,
Kisses like sunlight mingled with mine.

Up the broad hall stair she passes away,
Into the shadow, out of the light,
With her last "Good night," for after to day
She and I shall never say "Good night"

THE DEMOCRATIC WIZARD'S BOTTLE.

[From a speech by Senator Booth in Indiana.]

The whole Democratic platform reminds me of an illustration used by a California friend of mine. Have you ever been to one of those magic show performances where the conjuror out of one bottle will pour every variety of drink? For instance, he will say, "Ladies and gentlemen, I shall be happy to give you a drink of sherry, of champagne, of tea, of coffee, of milk, of ice-water, of anything out of this bottle." A lady will step up and say, "I should like to have a cup of tea." He will say, "sweetened, miss?" and pour it out from the bottle A man will step up and say, "Gimme a little whisky." He pours him a little whisky. Another says, "I should like a little champagne," and forth from this bottle out bubbles the champagne. He has it all in that wonderful bottle.

[illegible] that D[illegible]atic platform, it seems to me, has a marvelous quality something of this nature. If a soft-money man comes up and says, "well, I like soft money," forthwith this Democratic conjuror says, "well, here, don't you see we have repealed the day of resumption?" "I will give you a little Hendricks." [Laughter.] A [illegible] comes up and says, "I like mine hard." "Don't you see we repealed the day of resumption because it hinders resumption? Why, take a little Tilden." [Renewed laughter.] "Well," another says, "I like paper currency, but I want it founded on gold." "Oh, we have got that exactly. We have it in this central reservoir. Take a little Tilden and Hendricks mixed" [Applause and laughter] Another man comes up and says, "Well, the war is over, and I am willing to accept the amendments to the Constitution, and let the negroes vote." "All right," says he. "Don't you see we have got that right there in our platform?" Another man comes up and says, "the negroes never ought to be allowed to vote in the world." He says, "of course. Take it, my friend. If they don't vote our way, we will [illegible] them." Another comes up and says, "I am liberal. I would like to get this up on a little higher tone." "I can suit you exactly, my friends. Here is Charles Francis nominated by the Democratic party of Massachusetts for governor." Another says: "I abide by the old amendments. I want no change at all. I want my Democracy straight and hard and anti-war." "My dear friends, we have got just the article that suits you. Here is Mr. Williams, blue jeans and all. [Great applause and laughter.] And if that is not hard enough, go over into the neighboring district and try Andy Humphreys."
